- the information and documentation the Coverholder reasonably requests;
- a legal opinion from the Appointed Representative as to a) and b) above;
- any advice the Coverholder may deem it necessary to take.

With the agreement of the Insured, the Coverholder may provide assistance in settling disputes, the costs of which will be covered under this Policy subject to the payment of the Excess or Increased Excess within the Limits of Insurer's Liability.

The Coverholder at its discretion may require the Insured to obtain an opinion from Counsel at the Insured's expense as to the merits of the subject matter of the Claim such opinion to have regard to the same issues that the Coverholder has in assessing the merits of any legal action. If based upon such opinion the Coverholder is satisfied in respect of a) and b) above the Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses in obtaining that opinion will be paid by the Insurer within the Limits of the Insurer's Liability.

In granting its consent the Insurer undertakes to provide indemnity to the Insured subject to the terms and conditions of this Policy and its Schedule but such consent does not imply that all Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Awards of Compensation or Adjudication Expenses will be paid. In particular Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses for matters that go beyond the immediate scope of the Claim shall be deemed by the Insurer to fall outside the indemnity provided by this Policy.

The Coverholder reserves the right to limit its consent by time and/or financial amount of Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses and/or stage of proceedings to allow for a review of their continued consent.

If after consent has been granted it is shown that the Claim has not been brought within the terms and conditions of this Policy and its Schedule the Coverholder's consent will be withdrawn and no indemnity shall be provided. The Insurer shall be entitled to recover any Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Awards of Compensation, Adjudication Expenses and Jury Service Allowance previously paid.

If the Insured elects to proceed with the pursuit or defence of a dispute or legal proceedings to which the Coverholder's consent has been refused through lack of reasonable prospects as required in b) i. and ii. above and if the Insured is successful in such pursuit or defence, the Insurer will pay Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses incurred after such consent had been refused subject to the terms and conditions of this Policy.

3. Instruction and choice of Appointed Representative and Counsel

The Coverholder will choose an Appointed Representative to act on behalf of the Insured in any Claim under certain Sections as specified in the Schedule.

Where recourse is necessary to a lawyer and proceedings are issued, the Insured is free to choose an Appointed Representative to act in the name of and on behalf of the Insured in any legal proceedings to which the Coverholder has consented subject to the Increased Excess. Where a Claim is made by the Insured named on the Schedule and an Employee (including a director or partner of the Insured) then the Employee must appoint the same Appointed Representative as the Insured. The name and address of the Appointed Representative the Insured proposes to instruct must be notified to the Coverholder in writing. The Coverholder will accept such nomination provided the Coverholder is satisfied the proposed Appointed Representative will co-operate and enable the Insured to comply with the terms and conditions of this policy and provided the proposed Appointed Representative's charging rates are fair and reasonable in regard to the particular legal proceedings.

In all other claims the Coverholder will choose the Appointed Representative subject to the Excess.

A dispute arising from the Insured's choice may be referred to Arbitration in accordance with General Condition 1.

The Insured must not, without the written consent of the Coverholder, enter into any agreement with the Appointed Representative as to the basis of calculation of Legal Expenses or Adjudication Expenses. The Coverholder may withdraw consent previously given at any time.

In selecting the Appointed Representative the Insured shall have regard to its duty to minimise the cost of any Claim.

In all cases the Appointed Representative shall be appointed in the name of and on behalf of the Insured. If in the course of any Claim the Appointed Representative wishes to instruct Counsel or an expert, Counsel's or the expert's name and an explanation of the necessity for such instruction must be submitted to the Coverholder for consent to the proposed instruction which will not be unreasonably withheld.

4. Disclosure

It is a condition precedent to the Insurer's liability that:

- a) the Insured must give the Appointed Representative and the Coverholder all necessary help and information including a complete and truthful account of the facts of the case and all relevant documentary or other evidence in the Insured's possession. The Insured must provide, obtain or execute all documents as necessary and attend meetings or conferences as requested.
- b) the Coverholder is entitled to receive from the Appointed Representative and Insured any information, documents or advice in connection with any Claim and the subject matter of any Claim even if privileged. In addition the Insured must instruct the Appointed Representative to provide the Coverholder with regular updates on the progress of the subject matter of any Claim and inform the Coverholder immediately if and when any circumstance adversely impacts the factors taken into account in granting the Coverholder's consent. On request the Insured will give to the Appointed Representative any instructions necessary to secure the required access.

Indemnity may be withdrawn if the Insured fails to co-operate at all or within a reasonable time with the Coverholder's or the Appointed Representative's requests.

5. Payment of Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Adjudication Expenses and Awards of Compensation

All bills for Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses which the Insured receives from the Appointed Representative should be forwarded to the Coverholder without delay. If the Coverholder so requires the Insured must ask the Appointed Representative to submit the bill of costs for assessment or certification by the appropriate Law Society, court or tribunal. The Insured is responsible for payment of all Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Awards of Compensation or Adjudication Expenses. The Insurer may settle these direct if requested by the Insured to do so. The payment of some Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses does not imply that all Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses or Awards of Compensation will be paid.

6. Offer of Settlement

It is a condition precedent to the liability of the Insurer that the Insured must inform the Coverholder in writing as soon as an offer to settle the subject matter of the Claim is received and/or the Insured proposes to make an offer of settlement. In any settlement, the Insured must have regard to Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Adjudication Expenses or Awards of Compensation incurred or likely to be incurred and the recovery thereof.

No indemnity will be provided if the Insured enters into any agreement to settle without the prior written consent of the Coverholder (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) and the Insurer shall be entitled to recover any Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses or Awards of Compensation previously paid. If the Insured unreasonably rejects an offer of settlement which the Coverholder recommends acceptance of or makes an offer which the Coverholder does not agree with no further indemnity shall be provided.

The Insurer may at its absolute discretion decide to pay the Insured the amount of damages that the Insured is claiming or is being claimed against the Insured instead of indemnifying the Insured for Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Adjudication Expenses or Awards of Compensation. Where the Insurer exercises this discretion the Insurer will cease to be liable for any further Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Adjudication Expenses or Awards of Compensation.

7. Recovery of Costs

Whenever the Insured is awarded costs or under the terms of any settlement where costs are included, those costs are to be repaid to the Insurer. Whenever the Insured receives damages compensation or monies of any kind in an Adjudication or subsequent litigation these shall be first used to pay the Adjudication Expenses or repay the Insurer any Adjudication Expenses already paid.

The Insured and their Appointed Representative must make every effort to make a full recovery of costs. Where a settlement purports to be a global or a without costs settlement or where costs are awarded but not recovered, the Insured agrees that a fair and reasonable proportion of that settlement will be deemed costs and due to the Insurer. Where such a settlement is paid in instalments all costs to the Insurer shall be paid first.

8. Appeal Procedure

If, following legal proceedings to which the Coverholder has consented, the Insured wishes to appeal against the judgment or decision of a court or tribunal, the grounds for such appeal must be submitted to the Coverholder through the Appointed Representative immediately or as soon as practicable so that the Coverholder may consider whether to consent to such further action. If an appeal is lodged against a judgment or decision of a court or tribunal made in favour of the Insured following legal proceedings to which the Coverholder has consented, the Insured must notify the Coverholder immediately in order that cover shall continue. The Coverholder will inform the Appointed Representative of its decision. If the Coverholder so requires it the Insured must co-operate in an appeal against the judgment or decision of a court or tribunal.

9. Duty to Minimise

The Insured must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent Claims, HMRC Investigations, legal proceedings and disputes.

The Insured must use every endeavour and take all reasonable measures to minimise the cost and effect of any Claim.

10. Fraudulent Claims

If the Insured makes any request for payment under this Policy knowing it to be fraudulent or false in any respect or ought reasonably in the circumstances to know it to be fraudulent or false or where there is collusion between any parties to the dispute, this Policy shall become void and any premiums paid shall be forfeited and the Insurer shall be entitled to recover any Legal Expenses, Professional Expenses, Adjudication Expenses Awards of Compensation and Jury Service Allowance previously paid.

11. Insolvency or Liquidation of the Insured

If the Insured becomes insolvent or is placed in liquidation, receivership, administration or bankruptcy or enters into a voluntary arrangement or deed of arrangement or if any application is made to the court or meeting convened for any such purpose the Insurer has the right to immediately cease to provide indemnity for Legal Expenses, Adjudication Expenses Awards of Compensation and Professional Expenses notwithstanding any previous consent the Coverholder may have granted.

12. Value Added Tax

If the Insured is registered for VAT, the Insurer will not pay the VAT element of any Legal Expenses or Professional Expenses or Adjudication Expenses.
