The insured's assessment of the cost of reinstatement of the property insured at the level of costs applying at the start of the period of insurance (ignoring inflationary factors which may operate subsequently) including insofar as the insurance by the item provides due allowance for:

- b) Professional fees;
- c) Removal of debris

all as calculated in accordance with those particular extensions to Section 1 – Buildings.

Section 1 – Operative clause

The company agrees, subject to the terms, conditions, extensions, exclusions, provisions and endorsements contained in this policy, that in the event of damage during the period of insurance, the company will indemnify the insured for damage to property insured or at the company's option reinstate or replace such property insured in whole or in part.

Provided that the liability of the company under this section will not exceed the sum insured(s) stated in the schedule, and any other limit(s) stated where any are applicable.

Section 1 – Basis of claims settlement

In the event of damage to buildings, the basis upon which the amount payable is to be calculated will be the cost of reinstatement:

Provided that:

- a) no payment beyond the amount which would have been payable had this clause not been operative will be made:
 - i) unless the work of reinstatement is begun and carried out with reasonable despatch;
 - ii) until the costs of reinstatement have been incurred;
 - iii) unless any other insurance covering the insured's interest in the property at the time of the damage is upon the same basis of reinstatement as this policy and if pursuant to this provision no such payment is made, then the rights and liabilities of the company and the insured under this policy in respect of the damage will be those which would have been applied had this clause not been operative.

At the start of each period of insurance, the insured must notify the company of the declared value of each of the items and in the absence of such declaration, the last amount declared by the insured will be taken as the declared value for the ensuing period of insurance.

Where because of Reinstatement clause 1) a) above no payment is to be made beyond the amount which would have been payable had that clause not been operative, the liability of the company will be limited to 100% of the declared value shown in the schedule.

Standard basis

Conditions

Included here are the conditions of the insurance under this section that the insured needs to meet as their part of this policy. If the insured does not meet these conditions, the company may need to reject a claim or a claim payment could be reduced.

1. Acts of parliament, statutory instruments, civil procedure rules and jurisdiction

All legal instruments and rules referred to within this section of the policy include equivalent legislation in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands and any later amendment or replacement legislation.

2. Consent

The insured person must agree to the company having sight of the appointed advisor's file relating to the insured person's claim. The insured person is considered to have provided consent to the company or their appointed agent to have sight of the appointed advisor's file for auditing and quality and cost control purposes.

- a) The company will choose the appointed advisor; however, the insured person is free to choose an appointed advisor if they wish.
- b) Where the insured person wishes to exercise their right to choose, they must write to the company (by e-mail, fax or letter) with their preferred representative's contact details. If the insured person does choose their own appointed advisor, the amount payable for their services will be on the basis of the company's standard terms of appointment for legal representation or other reasonable terms of appointment to which the company agrees, their agreement not to be unreasonably withheld.
- c) If the insured person dismisses the appointed advisor without good reason, or withdraws from the claim without the company's written agreement or if the appointed advisor refuses with good reason to continue acting for the insured person, cover will end with immediate effect.

4. Barrister's opinion

At any time the company may seek an independent barrister's opinion as to the reasonable prospects of success in defending the prosecution.

If the opinion is that a "not guilty" plea does not have a reasonable prospect of success then the company will advise the insured of that opinion.

Should the insured elect to continue with a "not guilty" plea then the company will withdraw their support for the insured person's defence and be under no further obligation to cover the insured for any costs incurred from the date of your refusal to accept that opinion, unless the insured obtain an independent barrister's opinion at their own expense which contradicts the opinion that the company have obtained, in which case the company will ask the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the bar council to appoint a King's Counsel to give a final opinion, at our expense, as to the prospects of success in defending the prosecution.

If the opinion of the King's Counsel agrees with the insured person's barrister's opinion then the company will continue to support the insured person's defence, but if it does not the company will withdraw their support for the insured person and be under no further obligation to cover the insured person's costs incurred from the date of the King's Counsel's final opinion.

This does not affect the insured person's right under the Arbitration clause contained within the Claims Conditions section.

5. The insured person's responsibilities

An insured person must:

- a) tell the company as soon as is practicably possible of anything that may make it more costly or difficult for the appointed advisor to resolve a claim in their favour;
- b) cooperate fully with the company, give the appointed advisor any instructions we require, and keep them updated with progress of the claim and not hinder them;
- c) take reasonable steps to recover costs and expenses and pay them to the company; and

These are the conditions of the cover and apply throughout your policy. There may be additional conditions under each section of cover and in any attaching endorsements.

If these conditions are not met by the insured, the company may reject a claim or a claim payment could be reduced. In some circumstances this policy may not be valid.

1) Cancellation

a) The insured has a statutory right to cancel this policy within 14 days from:

- the day of purchase or renewal of the contract; or
- the day on which the insured receives this policy or their renewal documentation, whichever is the later.

If the insured wishes to cancel and the insurance cover has not yet begun, the insured will be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid. Alternatively, if the insured wishes to cancel and the insurance cover has already started, provided the insured have not made a claim, the insured will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, less a proportional deduction for the time the company have provided cover.

The insured can exercise this right by telephoning their insurance agent or by writing (by e-mail or letter) to their insurance agent.

If the insured does not exercise their right to cancel this policy, it will continue in force and the insured will be required to pay the premium

For cancellation outside of this statutory cooling off period the insured can cancel this insurance at any time by telephoning their insurance agent or by writing (by e-mail or letter) to their insurance agent.

If this insurance is cancelled outside the statutory cooling off period, provided the insured has not made a claim and there has not been an event that could give rise to a claim, the insured will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, less a deduction for any time for which the insured has been covered. This will be calculated on a proportional basis. For example, if the insured have been covered for 6 months, the deduction for the time the insured have been covered will be half the annual premium.

Provided that any return of premium is subject to:

- a) the application of any Minimum Premium; and
 - b) no claim having been made during the period of insurance; and
 - c) written confirmation from the insured that there are no known circumstances likely to give rise to a claim.
- b) The company may cancel the policy or any section by giving 30 days' notice in writing by registered letter to the insured at their last known address and in this case the insured will be entitled to a proportionate return of premium for the unexpired term of the policy (other than in circumstances where the company invoke the fraudulent claims condition or a claim has been made).

Where a claim has been made during the current period of insurance, the full annual premium will still be payable despite cancellation of cover and the company reserve the right to deduct this from any claim payment immediately, subject to the requirements of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 if applicable.

- c) The company may cancel the policy immediately, subject to the requirements of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 where if applicable the insured has applied to pay the premium by instalments and an instalment is not received by the due date. In these circumstances the insured's credit agreement will also be cancelled immediately.

This policy will be cancelled with immediate effect, if after the start of this insurance:

- i) the insured's business is wound up or carried on by a liquidator, receiver or administrator or permanently discontinued;
- ii) the insured's interest ceases, otherwise than by death.

2) Reasonable precautions

The insured will:

- a) take reasonable precautions to:
 - i) prevent any circumstances or to cease any activity which may give rise to liability under this policy; and
 - ii) maintain all buildings, furnishings, ways, works, machinery, plant and vehicles in sound condition; and
- b) as soon as possible after discovery, cause any defect or danger in respect of products, buildings, fittings, furnishings, plant, or machinery to be made good or remedied and in the meantime will cause such additional precautions to be taken as the circumstances may require.

3) Remedies for breach of fair presentation

Before this policy was entered into the insured had a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk which the insured wished to insure. This applies prior to the start of your policy, if any variation is required during the period of insurance and prior to each renewal.

If the insured has breached their duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to the company before this policy was entered into, then:

- a. where the breach was deliberate or reckless, the company may avoid this policy and refuse all claims, and keep all premiums paid;
- b. where the breach was neither deliberate nor reckless, and but for the breach:
 - i) the company would not have agreed to provide cover under this policy on any terms then the company may avoid this policy and refuse all claims, but will return any premiums paid;
 - ii) the company would have agreed to provide cover under this policy but on different terms (other than premium terms) then the company may require that this policy includes those different terms with effect from its start; and/or
 - iii) the company would have agreed to provide cover under this policy but would have increased the premium, or would have increased it by more than they did, or would not have reduced it or would have reduced it by less than they did:
 - a. if the discovery of the breach arose because of a claim, the company may reduce proportionately the amount paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the company will pay only Y% of what the company would otherwise have been required to pay, where $Y = \frac{\text{total premium actually charged}}{\text{the premium that would have been charged}} \times 100$
 - b. If the discovery of the breach did not arise because of a claim, the insured must pay to the company the additional premium that the company would have charged, but for the breach of the duty of fair presentation, calculated from the date the variation was entered into.

If the discovery of the breach did not arise because of a claim the insured must pay to the company the additional premium that the company would have charged, but for the insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation, calculated from the start of the period of insurance.

Before a variation was agreed

If the insured has breached their duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to the company before any variation to this policy was agreed, then:

- a) If the breach was deliberate or reckless, the company may terminate this policy with effect from the date of the variation, and keep all premiums paid;
- b) where the breach was neither deliberate nor reckless, and but for the breach:
 - i) the company would not have agreed to the variation on any terms then the company may treat this policy as though the variation was never made, but will return any additional premiums paid in relation to the variation;
 - ii) the company would have agreed to the variation but on different terms (other than premium terms) then the company may require that the variation includes those different terms with effect from the date the variation was made; and/or

- iii) the company would have agreed to the variation but would have increased the premium, or would have increased it by more than they did, or would not have reduced it or would have reduced it by less than they did:
 - a. if the discovery of the breach arose because of a claim, the company may reduce proportionately the amount paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the company will pay only Y% of what the company would otherwise have been required to pay, where $Y = \frac{\text{total premium actually charged}}{\text{premium that would have been charged}} \times 100$
 - b. If the discovery of the breach did not arise because of a claim, the insured must pay to the company the additional premium that the company would have charged, but for the breach of the duty of fair presentation, calculated from the date the variation was entered into.
- iv) where the company would have agreed to the variation but on different terms and would also have increased the premium, or would have increased it by more than they did, or would not have reduced it or would have reduced it by less than they did
 - a. the company may require that the variation includes those different terms with effect from the date the variation was made; and
 - b. before a variation was agreed b) iii) as shown above will also apply.

4) Statutory regulations

In respect of any vessel, machinery or apparatus or its contents belonging to or under the control of the insured, which requires to be examined to comply with any statutory regulations, it is a condition precedent to cover against destruction or damage caused by an explosion that such service vessel machinery or apparatus is the subject of a policy or other contract providing the required inspection service.

- a. Between the start of this policy and the production of the survey report, policy terms, conditions and exclusions remain unaltered.
- b. In the event that the survey report is unsatisfactory to the company, the company will have the right to:
 - i) amend this policy's terms, conditions, or exclusions and or require completion of risk improvements issued in writing by the company within a defined period; or
 - ii) terminate this policy by serving not less than 30 (thirty) days' notice in writing to the insured at the address stated in the schedule and also to the insured's insurance agent.

If the company elects to change the terms in accordance with b) i) above, then the insured may:

- a. terminate this policy within 30 days of receipt of the revised terms by giving notice in writing to the company; or
 - b. continue this policy at the revised terms for the remainder of the period of insurance;
- or
- c. In the event of termination of this policy under this condition:
 - i) premium is due to the company on a pro rata basis for the period that the company is on risk; or
 - ii) when the premium for the period of insurance has been paid to the company, the insured will be entitled to pro rata return of premium for the unexpired period of insurance
